

Kia ora e te whānau,

Welcome to our August newsletter. It was lovely to see many of you at our last Showmaker Gathering - always such a boost to feel the good vibes when this amazing group comes together.

Staff Changes

Most of you will have heard by now that Evie will soon be leaving us. Unfortunately their health has deteriorated and they need to take some time out to focus on wellness.

In terms of station operation, the rest of the team will be sharing Evie's duties until the Board appoints a replacement, ensuring minimal disruption for our Showmakers.

Evie was recently a guest on Frankly Friday, where they talked about their medical condition, Ehlers-Danlos Syndrome. For a better understanding of what they're going through, check out the podcast:-

Milestones

The Law Lady

Angela Solomons is part of the furniture here. As her alter ego, The Law Lady, she's been making fortnightly shows since 2011 – only taking time off to have babies along the way. Congratulations on 308 episodes and counting!

Swiss Music Show

Andre Manella and Fredi Hallauer have just clocked up a massive 300 episodes, presenting the most diverse selection of Swiss music ever

Pick A Tale for Kids/Adults

Lesley Dowding has quietly just crept past her 100th episodes of both shows. Our world is a much better place with Lesley's stories!

Volly Voices

Shoutout to Marie and Graham for 25 episodes of this show, shining the light on volunteers and the organisations they serve

Herbal Wisdom

Congratulations to Martina Murray on 10 episodes of sharing knowledge and passion for all things home-grown and tasty 🌿

Una Lloridita y a Seguir

Maria & Clarissa have just clocked up 10 episodes of this great conversational show in Spanish. We absolutely love their passion 🇪🇸

Where's Waru?

He's on the air! Waru shares whatever is on his mind – and that's usually quite a lot. Congratulations Waru for the first 10 episodes of sharing your intrigues and interests 😊

New Show Alert

Untold Stories of Life

Ehsan Mobini is no stranger to ART, having initially collaborated with others to produce Te Ao Iran. Now Ehsan is back, sharing the stories of successful local businesses. He encourages his guests to be open about the struggles their businesses have faced, and the strategies used to overcome them.

Mondays at 5.30pm, and on demand anytime

Promoting Your Show

Shoutout to Showmakers Maria and Clarisa for going the extra mile to promote their show, Una Lloradita y a Seguir. Not only do these ladies do a fabulous job on social media, but they've just had stickers, t-shirts, and even mugs printed with the show's logo. We absolutely love this level of commitment! What cool things are you doing to promote YOUR show?????

Please remember....

When you're at the station, there may be a live show or a recording happening. Please try to keep your voice down in the studio area, and always refrain from slamming doors!

New Microphones

Seems we were a bit previous in mentioning these, as turns out the ones we bought didn't quite meet our needs. For now, we've reverted back to the old ones. While the audio from these is fine, the goal is to eliminate visual clutter by having mics that sit on the desk. Watch this space...

Art for ARTspace

This month we have an exhibition by the students of Anne Kim's Art Studio in Waiwhakaiho. Drop by to see the colourful and delightful fruits of their labour, in both watercolour and acrylic.

That's all for this month.

Mā te wā,

Anne, Evie, Kris, Michelle, and Phill
