Hearing Dogs

What's been happening?

We have had a wonderful season at Hearing Dogs, with lots of action afoot!

Since our last newsletter we have made 6 partnerships! With 3 in the North Island and 3 in the South Island, our trainers have been kept very busy.

We have 5 gorgeous dogs in training and three puppies in the programme - see overleaf for the cuteness!

The new recipient cottage has landed on-site at the Training Centre causing much excitement and a little chaos.

We had the fabulous Michelle & Joe here from Manchester UK. Michelle works for Hearing Dogs UK, and her knowledge and guidance was a real treasure. Joe helped us with maintenance and preparation for the cottage transition. We truly feel thankful for having them volunteer for Hearing Dogs.

Thank you for following our journey and supporting Hearing Dogs NZ. It really is all of the people in our community that make this organisation flourish.

Our trainers have a busy couple of months ahead working with these Hearing Dogs in training to become great service dogs & companions as pictured above on the log playground at the Hearing Dogs NZ training centre.

Pictured left is Hearing Dog Trainer Chris with soon to be jacketed Hearing Dog Ardie. Chris and Ardie have been going to all sorts of places to get him ready for the real world life, with his new person. The fish at Mitre 10 we're fascinating.

Special mention to the New Zealand Lottery Grants Board for their donation towards operational expenses and helping us to help others.

WE NEED YOUR OLD STAMPS

We are collecting used and old stamps to help us raise funds. Whether your stamps are recent or old, common or rare, whether they come from New Zealand or across the world, every stamp counts! Stamps can be sent to:
PO box 8117, New Plymouth 4342

Special mention to Val Gould (Hawera), Kim & Jeremy Adlam (Inglewood) and Joy Eliason (Inglewood) who collectively saved 1000's of stamps for us - great mahi!

CONGRATULATIONS! to Tracey Cooper, Dog Trainer & Recipient Coordinator, for achieving accreditation with IAABC International Association of Animal Behaviour Consultants, certification in recognition of the successful completion of the accredited dog trainer examination. She also received her advanced diploma with merit in applied animal behaviour. We are so proud!

We had the fabulous Michelle & Joe here from Manchester UK for two weeks in July 2024. Michelle works for Hearing Dogs UK. Her knowledge and guidance was a real treasure. We learned a lot and truly feel thankful for having them volunteer for Hearing Dogs.

A big thank you to Tayla from Tayla's Mobile Vet Nursing, who volunteers for Hearing Dogs. She comes out to the Training centre to check up on our doggies each month, as well as helping our local Hearing Dogs in the community.

We farewelled the late Terry Darby in May 2024. His charisma and passion for life will live on in all of us. Thank you Terry for your service and unwavering dedication to Hearing Dogs New Zealand, our dogs and our people.

Thank you to The Lion Foundation. Your contribution towards both our general managers and groundsman wages, is greatly appreciated. Groundsman Larry Farmer pictured above with Sasha.
